What is or what are your favorite Malabrigo colors?

I love stonechat, velvet grapes and the new Silky color Arlene's purples. Oh and Amoroso!

I have only just now discovered the joys of Malabrigo. It did not take long as I am seriously hooked and on the hunt for more colors so I can decide which is my favorite color!

I had to look that color up ~ oh wow! That is gorgeous!! Wish my LYS carried that color... think I am going to ask her to carry it. I can see why that is your favorite!!

Pagoda, hands down. I somehow managed to come across a batch of darker-dyed Pagoda that I went bonkers over and now cannot find anywhere, but I still love the more regular version of the color and am making a set of Noni Adventure Bags with it--perfect for toting my bellydance stuff!

I love Autumn Fall but have only been able to find 4 skeins of it. I also love emerald, which worked up into a beautiful neck down pullover. They are all beautiful though, it's hard to pick!!
