Thanks for writing the first post! We are not sure when the Sock will be available, but we'll post it as soon as it is ready
We hope to improve the site as we learn how to work with it.

Thanks again

Tobias

We'll be ready for it Tobias. I'm learning something about knitting socks so I can jump right in. I think we should have a Malabrigo Sock Month once it's released. :P

Hi I am still trying to feel my way around this site. So glad though that it is here, as I am a huge Malibrigo nut!! I am replying to your post because it mentioned that there will be sock yarn. Is this true? If it is.....I am in trouble!!!

It's true, we don't know when though,
I'm also trying to find my way around this site, we are very "green" on this forum thing.
